

QUALITY POLICY

Alumetal Group

Alumetal Group is the producer of aluminium casting alloys and master alloys, mainly for automotive industry. The approved and being realized quality policy results from the development strategy of ALUMETAL Group and the targets defined in the strategic goals of our company.

The main strategic goals include:

- growing of company value through increasing of the range and effectiveness of activities
- maintaining the leading position in secondary alloys European market
- obtaining the world leading position in master alloys market
- investing into most modern technologies to keep competitive advantage
- maintaining the position of a company that satisfies customer requirements and that is beforehand the customer expectations

The key criterion of our operation is to satisfy expectations of the CUSTOMER and win full confidence of the CUSTOMER through provision of top quality products and supplementary services.

The targets of the quality policy are accomplished through:

- active participation of the Management Board of ALUMETAL S.A. in carrying out the quality policy
- promotion of quality awareness by the management at all levels of the company
- Fulfilling the requirements of the customers
- Fulfilling the requirements of the customers
- Continuous improvement of the product and the quality management system
- engagement of all employees in improvement of the quality of products and services as well as development of the quality system

The management of Alumetal Group is particularly responsible for the quality. We ensure sustainable development of Alumetal Group through satisfying CUSTOMER expectations and constant development of our products.

2019-10-12

President of the Management Board